John 17:1-3

Jesus prayed, "Father, the time has come. Give glory to your Son so that the Son can give glory to you. You gave the Son power over all people so that the Son could give eternal life to all those people you have given to him. And this is eternal life: that men can know you, the only true God, and that men can know Jesus Christ, the One you sent."

John 17:5-7

"And now, Father, give me glory with you. Give me the glory I had with you before the world was made. You gave me some men from the world. I have shown them what you are like. Those men belonged to you, and you gave them to me. They have obeyed your teaching. Now they know that everything you gave me comes from you."

John 17:9-11

"I pray for them now. I am not praying for the people in the world. But I am praying for those men you gave me, because they are yours. All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And my glory is shown through these men. Now I am coming to you... But these men are still in the world... Keep them safe by the power of your name (the name you gave me), so that they will be one, the same as you and I are one."

Luke 22:43-46

Then an angel from heaven appeared to him to help him. Jesus was full of pain; he prayed even more. Sweat dripped from his face as if he were bleeding. When he finished praying, he went to his followers. They were asleep. (Their sadness had made them very tired.) Jesus said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray for strength against temptation.”

Acts 1:23-26

They put the names of two men before the group. One was Joseph Barsabbas... The other was Matthias. The apostles prayed, "Lord, you know the minds of everyone. Show us which one... you have chosen to do this work. Judas turned away from it and went where he belongs. Lord, show us which one should take his place...!" Then they used lots to choose between them, and the lots showed that Matthias was the one...

Acts 4:23-24, 31

Peter and John left the meeting of Jewish leaders and went to their own group. They told them everything that the leading priests and the Jewish elders had said to them. When the believers heard this, they prayed to God with one purpose... After they had prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke God's word without fear.

Acts 8:14-17

The apostles were still in Jerusalem. They heard that the people of Samaria had accepted the word of God. So they sent Peter and John to them. When Peter and John arrived, they prayed that the Samaritan believers might receive the Holy Spirit. These people had been baptized...the Holy Spirit had not yet entered any of them. Then, when the two apostles began laying their hands on the people, they received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 9:39-40

Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows stood around Peter, crying. They showed him the shirts and coats that Tabitha had made when she was still alive. Peter sent everyone out of the room. He kneeled and prayed. Then he turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, stand up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

Romans 1:8-10

First I want to say that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you. I thank God because people everywhere in the world are talking about your great faith. God knows that every time I pray I always mention you. God is the One I serve with my whole heart by telling the Good News about his Son. I pray that I will be allowed to come to you, and this will happen if God wants it.

Romans 15:30-33

Brothers, I beg you to help me in my work by praying for me to God. Do this because of our Lord Jesus and the love that the Holy Spirit gives us. Pray that I will be saved from the non-believers in Judea. And pray that this help I bring to Jerusalem will please God's people there. Then, if God wants me to, I will come to you. I will come with joy, and together you and I will have a time of rest. The God who gives peace be with you all...
