Matthew 6:6

“When you pray, you should go into your room and close the door. Then pray to your Father who cannot be seen.

Your Father can see what is done in secret, and he will reward you.”

Matthew 6:7-8

“And when you pray, don’t be like those people who don’t know God. They continue saying things that mean nothing. They think that God will hear them because of the many things they say. Your Father knows the things you need before you ask him.”

Matthew 6:9-10

“So when you pray, you should pray like this: ‘Our Father in heaven, we pray that your name will always be kept holy. We pray that your kingdom will come. We pray that what you want will be done, here on earth as it is in heaven.’”

Matthew 6:11-13

“Give us the food we need for each day. Forgive the sins we have done, just as we have forgiven those who did wrong to us. And do not cause us to be tested, but save us from the Evil One.”

John 17:1-3

Jesus prayed, "Father, the time has come. Give glory to your Son so that the Son can give glory to you. You gave the Son power over all people so that the Son could give eternal life to all those people you have given to him. And this is eternal life: that men can know you, the only true God, and that men can know Jesus Christ, the One you sent."

John 17:5-7

“And now, Father, give me glory with you. Give me the glory I had with you before the world was made. You gave me some men from the world. I have shown them what you are like. Those men belonged to you, and you gave them to me. They have obeyed your teaching. Now they know that everything you gave me comes from you.”

John 17:9-11

“I pray for them now. I am not praying for the people in the world. But I am praying for those men you gave me, because they are yours. All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And my glory is shown through these men. Now I am coming to you. But these men are still in the world. Keep them safe by the power of your name (the name you gave me), so that they will be one, the same as you and I are one.”

John 17:13-14

“I am coming to you now. But I pray these things while I am still in the world. I say these things so that these men can have my joy. I want them to have all of my joy. I have given them your teaching. And the world has hated them. The world hated these men, because they don't belong to the world, the same as I don't belong to the world.”

John 17:15-19

"I am not asking you to take them out of the world. But I am asking that you keep them safe from the Evil One. Make them ready for your service through your truth. Your teaching is truth. I have sent them into the world, the same as you sent me into the world. I am making myself ready to serve. I do this for them so that they can truly be ready for your service."

John 17:24-26

“Father, I want these people that you have given me to be with me in every place I am. I want them to see my glory. Father, you are the One who is good. The world does not know you, but I know you. And these people know that you sent me. I showed them what you are like. And again I will show them what you are like. Then they will have the same love that you have for me. And I will live in them.”

Luke 22:39-42

Jesus left the city and went to the Mount of Olives. His followers went with him.

(Jesus went there often.) He said to his followers, "Pray for strength against temptation."

Then Jesus went about a stone's throw away from them.

He kneeled down and prayed,

"Father, if it is what you want,

then let me not have this cup of suffering. But do what you want, not what I want."

Luke 22:43-46

Then an angel from heaven appeared to him to help him. Jesus was full of pain; he prayed even more. Sweat dripped from his face as if he were bleeding. When he finished praying, he went to his followers. They were asleep. (Their sadness had made them very tired.) Jesus said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray for strength against temptation."

Acts 1:23-26

They put the names of two men before the group. One was Joseph Barsabbas. The other was Matthias. The apostles prayed, "Lord, you know the minds of everyone. Show us which one you have chosen to do this work. Judas turned away from it and went where he belongs. Lord, show us which one should take his place." Then they used lots to choose between them, and the lots showed that Matthias was the one.

Acts 4:23-24, 31

Peter and John left the meeting of Jewish leaders and went to their own group. They told them everything that the leading priests and the Jewish elders had said to them. When the believers heard this, they prayed to God with one purpose. After they had prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke God's word without fear.

Acts 8:14-17

The apostles were still in Jerusalem. They heard that the people of Samaria had accepted the word of God. So they sent Peter and John to them. When Peter and John arrived, they prayed that the Samaritan believers might receive the Holy Spirit. These people had been baptized, the Holy Spirit had not yet entered any of them. Then, when the two apostles began laying their hands on the people, they received the Holy Spirit.

Acts 9:10-11

There was a follower of Jesus in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to Ananias in a vision, "Ananias!"
Ananias answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight Street.
Find the house of Judas. Ask for a man named Saul from the city of Tarsus. He is there now, praying."

Acts 9:39-40

Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows stood around Peter, crying. They showed him the shirts and coats that Tabitha had made when she was still alive. Peter sent everyone out of the room. He knelt and prayed. Then he turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, stand up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

Acts 10:2-4

Cornelius was a religious man. He and all the other people who lived in his house worshiped the true God. He gave much of his money to the poor and prayed to God often. In the vision an angel of God came to him and said, "Cornelius!" Cornelius became afraid and said, "What do you want, Lord?" The angel said, "God has heard your prayers. He has seen what you give to the poor. And God remembers you."

Romans 1:8-10

First I want to say that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you. I thank God because people everywhere in the world are talking about your great faith. God knows that every time I pray I always mention you. God is the One I serve with my whole heart by telling the Good News about his Son. I pray that I will be allowed to come to you, and this will happen if God wants it.

Romans 15:30-33

Brothers, I beg you to help me in my work by praying for me to God. Do this because of our Lord Jesus and the love that the Holy Spirit gives us. Pray that I will be saved from the non-believers in Judea. And pray that this help I bring to Jerusalem will please God's people there. Then, if God wants me to, I will come to you. I will come with joy, and together you and I will have a time of rest. The God who gives peace be with you all.
